The information super highway has been paved and the likes of e-commerce are taking off like a rocket.

We've had the honour of hosting both American and European guests and would like to share our wilderness with more eco conscious tourists.

For those of U 'hooked-up' www3.sympatico.ca/wildexodus is where our new outfitting services can be seen. There are lots of pics on another site - surf between the two via link @ canada or exodus flags. Don't be shy... send us e-mail !

May-run party ~

What to do ???

The holiday falls on Monday the 22nd - so unless someone has a major objection we'll start things up at high noon.

Best of luck with this year's angling. Please make sure your in compliance with the new boating regulations.

Recipes 4 all! ☺

By popular demand this section will be a regular feature of the gazette. Please submit your favourite outdoor recipe so we can share it with everyone.

Lucie's Pike
Compote
6 Lbs.
Kenogamissi
Gator

- 1 can tomato soup
- 1 cup vinegar
- 1 cup oil
- Salt, Herbs & Spices
(to taste)

Bring to boil and simmer for 45 min.

Drain & Jar Bon Appetite

Fish stories to continue...

Bring your favourite to one of the night fire pow wows to share with us. Last year's contest was such a hit that we will, of course, do it again. Who will be the judge? Prizes to be announced - and remember, it's the story that counts, not what you catch.

LOOK up ^

Lift your eyes toward the heavens above... meteorologists are predicting unbelievable opportunities to experience 'meteorite showers'.

Pictures are farmed to be worth 1,000 words - lets put our cameras to work and speak millions !

Neighbours

Roger & Loraine Rochon will not be with us this season. They have set up residence in London and hope to rejoin us at their retirement.

Our heartiest welcome to Tammy & Marc our new seasonal residents in lot 9.
